

THEY LIE IN WAIT TO DECEIVE

by Robert L. & Rosemary Brown

FAIR is pleased to make this online version of Robert L. and Rosemary Brown's classic book available to you, free of charge. We are sure you will appreciate the meticulous research and documentation provided by the Browns in their books.

There are four volumes in this series. Each focuses on a different area of anti-Mormon efforts. If you enjoy this volume, be sure to check out the other volumes also available at the FAIR Web site.

Every effort has been made to ensure that this online version is of the highest quality possible, given the technological limits of online materials. Each page of the original book was scanned by dedicated volunteers and checked for accuracy and legibility.

As you are reading, you may notice that some of the smaller text is "fuzzy" or not entirely readable. This is one of those technological limits—if we had attempted to provide the highest quality download possible, the online files would have been 30 times larger and therefore unmanageable for the average Internet user. Our driving desire was to make this information available to the widest audience possible.

If you are interested in a copy of this book in a higher quality, we suggest purchasing a copy of the actual printed book. The books are not that expensive, and they are a valuable addition to any library. FAIR is the sole authorized distributor of all volumes of They Lie In Wait To Deceive. To order, visit our Web site:

<http://www.fair-lds.org>

Not only do you get a classic book that you can take with you (you are no longer bound to the computer), but you help to support FAIR in its mission to bring you apologetic works of unquestioned value.

We hope you enjoy this book, and pray that God will bless you as you sincerely seek His word and will.

DISTRIBUTING THIS ONLINE BOOK

You are free to forward this book to your friends or anyone you feel may benefit by the information it contains. Better still, you can direct your friends to the FAIR Web site where they can download their own copy, along with other information they may find helpful.

You are not free to post this online book on your Web site or store it in any publically accessible storage medium, such as an FTP site. You cannot include this book in any compilation or commercial work without the express written permission of FAIR.

Is Nelson, or has he ever been, a professor at Rocky Mountain College as he claims?

LORI KECK
NEW HORIZONS DEPARTMENT
ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGE

This author called Rocky Mountain College and was referred to Lori Keck, head of the New Horizons Department. She reported that Nelson lectures a non-credit continuing education class and was not a regular faculty member, or professor, there. She described him as being somewhat different, and said that he says “strong” things about himself, such as calling himself a world authority. (Note the newspaper clipping on the previous page that refers to Nelson as “Professor”, “World’s Leading Authority on Egyptology”.) She said that he goes to Egypt regularly; this last time measuring the bases of the pyramids, and that he is a strong believer in “pyramid power”. She said that he claimed to have received a B.S. in Biology at Pacific Northwestern and an M.S. in Egyptology at Berkeley, but adds that non-credit courses are taught on a volunteer basis — the teacher is not on the payroll; therefore, the credentials of these volunteer teachers, including Nelson’s, are not checked.

R. DEAN BOSWELL
DEAN OF ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGE

The Dean of Rocky Mountain College, R. Dean Boswell, states that Nelson has never been a professor there:

"Mr. Dee Jay Nelson has never held the rank of professor here at Rocky Mountain College; in fact, he has never taught any courses in our regular program. He has taught a number of courses in our New Horizon program, a program of non-credit courses on topics of interest to the community. People who teach these courses hold no official title or rank at the college."

Dean Boswell closes his letter by stating, "I don't know where he acquired the title of 'professor' " (see Boswell letter below).

Mr. Robert L. Brown

Dear Mr. Brown:

Mr. Dee Jay Nelson has never held the rank of professor here at Rocky Mountain College; in fact, he has never taught any courses in our regular program. He has taught a number of courses in our New Horizon program, a program of non-credit courses on topics of interest to the community. People who teach these courses hold no official title or rank at the College.

I don't know where he acquired the title of "professor," but he does list himself with that title in the Billings telephone directory.

Sincerely yours,

IN SUMMARY . . .

Nelson likes to be called "Professor" Nelson. He even lists himself as "Nelson Dee Jay Prof" in the phone book. However, he is not a "professor" in any academic sense.

In a telephone conversation with Lori Keck, head of the New Horizons Department, Rocky Mountain College, she says that Nelson is not a "Professor" there. He does lecture some non-credit extension courses on a volunteer basis — without pay. Since these lecturers are not on the payroll, their credentials are not checked.

Dean of Rocky Mountain College, R. Dean Boswell, says Nelson has never held the rank of Professor there. Dean Boswell states: "People who teach these courses (non-credit) hold no official title or rank at the college."
