

On The Record

Michael R. Otterson, Church Public Affairs

“...defend the gospel”

What has changed?

“On The Record”

How Public Affairs is structured

Public Affairs does not have its own agenda

Home

News Releases

Topics and Background

Leadership and Organization

Facts and Statistics

Multimedia

Blog

Contact

🔍 Search

LDS Charities Food Production and Nutrition

VIDEO

MOTION GRAPHIC: Helping the Needy; It's a Hand Up

Each year thousands of members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints donate more than 7 million hours to the Church's food production and welfare facilities as they strive to follow the example of Jesus Christ. When someone, despite their best efforts, can't provide for themselves or their family, the Church and its members step in to help. It's not a handout — it's a hand up.

READ MORE »

“Defend” versus “Promote”

Some Big Questions

pres•ent•ism

noun

An attitude toward the past dominated by present-day attitudes and experiences

www.mormonsandgays.org

#fairness4all

Is there room for your own views?

Disciplinary Councils

Gospel Topics Essays

Central dilemma of public affairs

We follow Jesus Christ

- We have faith
- We are strong supporters of the family
- We value freedom
- We live by strong moral values
- We serve others
- We believe lives can change

?